

GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF ZIMBABWE

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2022

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP

- There was 9% increase on the ordinary membership
- There was no movement on the other membership categories

SOCIETY ACTIVITIES FOR THE YEAR: TALKS

- Basement Architecture of the Central African Shield - Hielke Jelsma
- Some African Coal Deposits - Lesley Jeffrey
- Professional Integrity: A case study - Vaughn Duke
- The Post-Karoo Mutandahwe Igneous Complex of Southeastern Zimbabwe -A host to a potential "CLIMAX-Type" Porphyry Molybdenum Deposit with distal Tungsten/Copper? - Tenyears Gumedede
- Institutionalizing Geological Considerations for Development Planning ; Need for Disaster Management Plan - Ngonidzashe Tobani

SOCIETY ACTIVITIES FOR THE YEAR: TALKS CONT

- Predictive Modelling of Orogenic Gold Mineralization in the Harare-Shamva Greenstone Belt - Tariro Ndhlovu
- Drones in Mining - Tatenda Mafara
- On the spatial association of granite intrusions & gold mineralization in the Belingwe greenstone belt, Zimbabwe - Godfrey Chagondah
- Long-term low-price benchmarks for metals and their effects on exploration, mining and investment - Peter Buchholz
- An Underground Mapping Solution - Solomon Gumbie
- Mineral Asset Valuation and Its Uses - William Gambiza
- Talk Online - Insights into the deformation and gold mineralisation of the Mwanesi Greenstone Belt, central Zimbabwe Craton - Brian Mapingere

Society activities Summer Symposium

- The traditional summer symposium was held as usual at the University of Zimbabwe
- 59 members participated
- There was a post symposium trip to Nyanga which was well attended

Professional Registration

- As per 2021 AGM resolution, a referendum was conducted on whether membership required the committee to go ahead with the issue of professional registration.
- Essentially the members agreed to go ahead with the professional registration process.

Sponsors: Thank You For Partnering Us.

TANDAMANZI DRILLING

zmlabs